This is an appealing style of Pinot Gris displaying peach, pear and citrus characters on the nose. The palate is fruity and smooth with a touch of sweetness which is nicely balanced by the acidity. A generously flavoured and lively wine with plenty of tasty flavours. At its best: now to 2012.

Brilliant pale, straw-yellow colour with green hues, this has a fresh, pristine, soft nose of pears and stonefruits with a whiff of flintiness from lees work. This is a classically elegant wine, the 14.5% alc. is just noticeable; it is dry to taste with 4.3 g/L rs. Very fine and pure white stonefruit, floral and minerally flavours sit alongside lively, crisp acidity. This is a zesty Pinot Gris to serve with antipasto and seafood over the next 2-3 years.
