MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2010

RAYMOND CHAN WINE REVIEWS

July 2011

17.5 / 20 : 4 stars

100% Sauvignon Blanc from the Wairau Valley, cool-fermented to 13.5% alc. and 2.0 g/L rs. Bright straw-yellow colour with some green hues, this has a soft, full and open bouquet of lush, ripe gooseberry fruit with notes of dark herbs and fresh nettles. Dry on palate, this is broad and very accessible, with up-front, lush, tropical fruit and gooseberry flavours. Soft acidity contributes to the gentle plushness, but keeps the wine sufficiently fresh and zesty. A crowd pleaser that will match seafood, salads and vegetable dishes over the next two years.

It's ripe and fragrant on the nose displaying passionfruit, feijoa and lime zest characters. The palate is juicy and lively with a refreshing mouthfeel and a lingering tasty finish. The wine is so approachable and friendly with plenty of appealing flavours. At its best: now to 2012.

The Frizzell label is producing consistently good wines. This is a good example as the herbaceous nose leads to a mouthful of sweet, ripe tropical fruit with crisp acidity. The result is a clean and refreshing wine in classic Marlborough sauvignon blanc style.
