TOM'S BLOCK PINOT NOIR 2008

AIR NEW ZEALAND IN-FLIGHT MAGAZINE

Bob Campbell MW, December 2009

One of New Zealand's best value examples of Pinot Noir is Neudorf's Tom's Block 08. Oodles of flavour, a drop dead gorgeous texture. My wine match for the Christmas turkey.

Five Stars

It has a balance of opulent dark spice and liveliness. It harmonises hints of plum, cherry and strawberry with smoky oak to produce a textural wine with weight and a lingering aftertaste.

Having enjoyed previous vintages it was a mighty relief to see that the 2008 Neudorf Tom's Block Pinot Noir is as good as ever. A dense savoury nose, not fruity, but very complex and complete. The wine has structure and definition in an approachable immediately pleasing style. Scrumptious.

Charming, classic Pinot Noir fragrance of loganberry and mulberry, with invitingly fresh juicy sweet fraise du bois on the palate and spicy oak undertones held in restrained check, finishing with good fresh acidity. Autumn game.

Very pale ruby. Funky, herby nose. Very lively, with a nice spiciness without being too specious. Lots of flirtatiousness. Good dry finish. Really positive.
