This wine tripped off a discussion about the sometimes fine difference between elegant and boring. It's juicy and lean, offers plenty of bright fruit and is driven by lengthy lines of acidity. The panel went for elegant.

This is as good as it has always been - just delicious. The nose is nicely lifted displaying feijoa, lime zest and herbaceous characters. It's intense and punchy on the palate showing excellent fruit concentration and a refreshing finish. At its best: now to 2013.
