4.5 Stars, Top Tip & Best Buy

Pegasus Bay's second label is called Main Divide and it always represents excellent value for money. This wine is packed full of tropical fruit aromas and flavours combined with honey nuances and a rich yet subtle acidity. Great length and concentration.

Best Value

Last month the Donaldson family – owners of Pegasus Bay Winery – donated a percentage of every bottle sale to the Red Cross Earthquake Appeal. Impressive as that is, the taste of Main Divide Riesling – intense limes, lemons, off-dry, balanced, succulent – is even more so. The only question is: how do winemakers Matt Donaldson and Lynnette Hudson create such a low priced and reliable racy Riesling every year?
