RAY JORDAN'S 2011 WA WINE GUIDE

Ray Jordan's, October 2010

91/100 points

Loaded with savoury spicy fruit which attacks from the first sniff. It is very intense and this carries through into the deep and punchy palate that is both focussed and long. Deliciously flavoursome in the mouth with fully ripe tannins and well weight oak in support.

The model of a refined Shiraz, the Sandalford mob would have given a nod of respect to this tobacco spiced rich black currant wine. And while it is only the baby of their range, high fives are in order.

THE BIG RED WINE BOOK 2010/11

Campbell Mattinson and Gary Walsh, July 2010

90/100 points

Lots of folks will go nuts over this. It's got plenty of sweet, slippery fruit flavour. It tastes of cherry jam, aniseed, apricots and earthy characters. It's more sweet than it is savoury. The tannins are grainy and warm and there's a real sense of round generosity to it.
