4 Stars

Gentle and smooth, this elegant Pinot shows lifted aromas of red cherry, spice and a hint of earthy mushrooms. It's nicely engaging on the palate with silky texture, well harmonised acidity and fine-grain tannins leading to a lovely dry finish. At its best now to 2013.

4 Stars & Best Value

There's a lot of pinot noir produced in New Zealand and most of it's highly priced, so it's a thrill to find Te Kairanga's new release so delicious and affordable. A textural wine with red fruits, underlying savoury notes, a hint of toasty oak and a silky charm make this new release an attractive wine. Excellent value.

3.5 stars

Good value, drink-young style, oak matured for eight months. Ruby hued and floral, with strong, berry/spice flavours, a hint of herbs and savoury complexity.

Light, easy drinking Pinot that displays a sweet, fruity nose - characteristics which are replicated in the palate. The tannins are gentle and the result is smooth is a touch lightweight.
