Reviews & Accolades

SHOTFIRE QUARTAGE 2007

WINE SPECTATOR

September 2009

---

90 Points

Ripe focused & silky, with a mild bite of tannin to support the cedary black cherry and spice flavours, lingering effectively on the expressive finish.

BIG RED WINE BOOK

Campbell Mattinson & Gary Walsh

92 Points

Serious Wine. Muscular dense and interesting, black olives, nuts and chocolate. There's a good slip of refreshing acidity and lots of drying tannins. The best bet is that patience will be rewarded with added complexity.
