It's ripe and fragrant on the nose displaying peach, pear and floral characters. The palate is immediately appealing with its succulent mouthfeel and refreshing acidity balancing the subtle sweetness brilliantly. At its best: now to 2012.

Super-pretty pink-gold colour and offers a sneaky splash of white peach and poached pear on the nose followed by a burst of punchy stonefruit, knicker-ripping acidity and textural delight. Fantastic with pork belly and kumara mash.
