

Reviews & Accolades

CHURCH BLOCK CABERNET SHIRAZ MERLOT 2009

MANLY DAILY

Rick Allen

This bang for your buck McLaren Vale red has been a pillar of Wirra Wirra's success over the years. It's a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz and Merlot and offers a full fleshy palate of red berries, blackcurrant and herbs, It's rich and full bodied, but has the soft approachability you want from your drink-now reds. You won't go too far wrong if you have a few of these lying around. Will suit a restaurant or just a relaxed gathering with friends

TYSON STELZER

Tyson Stelzer

92pts

It's frankly hilarious that you can pick up a wine for $17 at Kemeny's and Dan Murphy's that will shine for twenty years! I'd never believe it if I hadn't been dazzled by a line of '80's and 90's Church Blocks recently. There must be some divine intervention going on here and the 2009 has sure been blessed. Drink 2019-2029

SUNDAY AGE

Jeni Port, 22 May 2011

One of the great red blends in Australia, the Church Block is a solid Catholic blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz and Merlot. The three grapes sit well together with cabernet bringing structure, shiraz providing fruit intensity and merlot adding elegance.

MATTHEW JUKES 100 BEST AUSTRALIAN WINES 2011

Matthew Jukes

Top 100

09 Church Block comes back down to earth and focuses on delivering the essences of McLaren Vale in a glass.

WEEKEND WEST

Ray Jordan, March 2011

93 Points

Simply one of the best value wines around the $20 mark in Australia. And when you get a full ripe vintage like this one, with its mid-palate opulence and flesh, it comes together as a terrific wine.