Medium-bodied, with abundant red and black fruits, supple and smooth; just "too easy on the gums", an expression first used by Sir James Hardy (universally "Jim" to his friends) many years ago.

WINE SPECTATOR

Bright and spicy, with flashes of white pepper and carnation around a supple core of currant and blackberry. The fruit is most prominent on the long, expressive finish. The tannins are well integrated. Drink now through to 2016.

5 stars

This premium Shiraz has syrupy berry fruit, sweet spice and a whisper of toasted coconut on the nose and a middle weight palate of fruit, smooth texture and tannins. A deliciously harmonious, satisfying red.
